

Newcastle & Cardiff Panthers

Casual Events Set up

We are looking for staff to join our sets team!

Responsible for the physical setting up of rooms for various events & functions this role plays a huge part in our success. You must be physically fit & have an eye for detail to ensure the set-up of all rooms meet the clients' specifications.

You will:

- play an active role in setting up tables, chairs & other equipment along with the breaking down the room after the event
- be involved in dressing tables & adding some of the 'final touches' that turn a room into an experience

Working across both Newcastle & Cardiff Panthers you will need to have flexible availability is required to meet the demands of our dynamic functions & events business. Throughout the course of a week, you will be required to work some early mornings to set up for breakfast seminars, as well as late evenings to break down from dinner functions. Previous experience in a similar role will be highly regarded; however, your energy & enthusiasm for exceeding customer expectations will help you to secure this position.

Terms & conditions of the Panthers Group Enterprise Agreement & above award rates of pay apply.
